NEW CAPITAL MOTOR TOUR.

Maps Showing Route Are Soon to Be Issued to Public.

Maps showing the new Capital motor tour are shortly to be issued to the motoring public. The tour includes the following cities: Washington, Fredericksburg, Richmond, Fort Monroe, Norfolk, Lynchburg, White Sulphur Springs, Hot Springs, Staunton, the grottoes of the Shenandoah, the caverns of Luray, Winchester, Martinsburg, Harper's Ferry, Fredericksburg, Gettysburg, York, Lancaster, Philadelphia, Wilmington, Baltimore and return to Washington.

T. A. McKee, secretary of the Washington Hotel Men's Association; W. R.
Lucas, secretary of the Southern Hotel Men's Association; and E. L. Ferguson, touring director of the American Automobile Association, are to leave this city at 6 o'clock tomorrow morning for a final tour of inspection over the new route, which is declared to be in many respects one of the most beautiful, as well as the most interesting historically, of any motor tour in the United States. Following the inspection trip the tour is expected to receive official approval and the maps and literature will be released.

The Long Road

That roads are long to Easy street, is true—all winners preach it; and if you move on sluggish feet, it's doubtful if you'll reach it. I see some lads who work for hire their leaden triblins dragging; the smallest effort makes them tire, and all they know is lagging. They face their work with dismal croaks, and grum-blings stale and wheezy; they'll never bask beneath the oaks that line the street called Easy. The road is long to Easy street, too rough for any telling, and one must tireless be and fleet who there would have his dwelling.
Oh, watch the men who there abide, the men who dance and gambol, and you will see upon each hide the scar of stone and bramble. They met disaster with a smile, their men was bold and breezy, they vaulted over fence and stile, and reached the street called Easy. The sluggard who is so afraid that he too hard will labor, will loaf and languish in the shade and cuss his winning neighbor; and each misfortune overwhelms this man with spirit choosy; he'll never rest beneath the elms that line the street called Easy. WALT MASON.

AUTOCROM TRAVELOG.

Dr. Reik Illustrates Lecture With Nature-Color Pictures.

"A Travelog in Autocrom Land" was presented by Dr. Harry O. Reik of Baltimore last night before Benjamin B.
French Lodge, No. 15, F. A. A. M., and a large audience of invited guests at the old Masonic Temple. The many photographic views which illustrated the lecture were taken by Dr. Reik by the nature-color process, introduced in this country a year or two ago, and which has not been overpopularized so as to yield no thrill. Pictures of the Capitol and other buildings, each in its environment of nature-toned lawns and foliage, and of scenic beauty points around Washington preceded a succession of travel views, which included the buildings, gardens and statuary of the Panama exposition, splendid glimpses of the grand canyon and a visit to an Indian reservation, in which the vivid coloring of the gorges and shawls worn by squaw and papoose, against the background of desert and adobe, was so faithfully duplicated by the lecturer's camera as to be remarkable, whether considered as nature or art. The scene of bronze monuments and of a silver vase filled with crimson roses was realistically reflected, and the exact colors were caught on an American flag against a wall of dull red brick. The pictures evidenced unusual photographic skill and were appreciatively received.

Wa-Wa Dairy Farms

Positively the ONLY Certified Milk Sold in the District of Columbia

For years it has been our constant aim to give the Washington public the very best milk obtainable.

Our record at the Government Health Department will prove this.

To maintain this record we must exercise every possible precaution as to the source of our milk supply, and for this purpose we maintain the most rigid inspection department of any dairy in the country. We find particular pleasure in announcing to our thousands of Washington patrons that we have arranged to supply the product of the FAMOUS WA-WA DAIRY, which needs no introduction to the Washington public, especially to that class who are vitally interested in pure milk.

HORTON SIMPSON ARRESTED.

To Answer Indictment Pending in This City Since 1909.

Horton Simpson, formerly principal of a public school in this city, was arrested in Albany, N. Y., Monday to answer an indictment pending against him in this city since 1909. The indictment was returned against the former school principal and Dr. Albert L.
Lawrence in connection with the death of Miss Abbie M. Coultry, a school teacher.

Miss Coultry was a teacher in the Hubbard School, while Mr. Simpson was principal of the Takoma Park School. The teacher died in the office of the physician, it is charged, following an operation.

Several days ago the police learned that the former principal was in Albany, and Detective Charles A. Evans was sent there to investigate the rumor. Monday he telegraphed word of the arrest, and a bench warrant for the defendant probably will reach Albany today.

TWO FIRMS INCORPORATED.

R. McReynolds & Sons and Colonial Bowling Company File Papers.

A certificate of incorporation has been filed with the recorder of deeds in which the firm of R. McReynolds & Sons of 1423 L street northwest was organized into a corporation known as R. McReynolds & Sons, Inc. The corporation is to build, operate, repair, buy and sell automobiles, carriages, cars and vehicles of all kinds and description, and to buy, own and control patent devices appertaining thereto.
The capital stock of the corporation is placed at $30,000. The incorporators are R. McReynolds, Wilton J. Lambert and William E. McReynolds.

The Colonial Bowling Company has also been incorporated to operate a bowling alley at 907 9th street northwest. The capital stock is $2,000, and the incorporators are William H. Oun-dard, Henry E. Deckman and Chapin B. Bauman.

Habeas Corpus Proceedings Fail.

The proceedings in habeas corpus brought by Joseph O. Harvey for the possession of his daughter, Valora Harvey, were dismissed last yesterday afternoon by Justice McCoy after a trial lasting two days. The court decided that Mrs. L. V. Harvey was entitled to retain custody of her child.
The parents have been living apart for several years, and the daughter has been with the mother. Attorneys Bertrand Emerson, Jr., and George E.
O'Neill appeared for the wife, while Attorney E. Hilton Jackson represented the father.
